   SECTION B: Novel (25 marks)
   SECTION C: Drama (25 marks)
3. Answer TWO questions in all as follows:
   ONE in SECTION A - COMPULSORY
   ONE from SECTION B (Novel) OR SECTION C (Drama)
4. Remember to plan, edit and proofread your essay. Clearly indicate planning and cross it out before submitting your final essay.
5. Your essay will be assessed according to the rubric attached to this task.
6. You may have your literature text and/or workbook with you as you complete this task.
7. You will be allocated time to do some research prior to writing the assignment.
8. Number your answers exactly as the questions have been numbered.
9. Start EACH section on a NEW page.
10. Pay special attention to spelling and sentence construction.

11. LENGTH OF ANSWERS:
    - The essay question on Poetry should be answered in about 150-200 words.
    - The essay question on the Novel OR Drama sections should be answered in 300-350 words.
12. Follow the instructions at the beginning of each section carefully.
13. Write neatly and legibly.

Research (phase one) will take place in first week. The second week (phase two) will be used for the completion of the task.
You must apply the following during your research:

- Select and evaluate information and decide when to use it
- Compile what was found from different resources
- Highlight the most relevant information
- Adapt research for the intended audience

You can use the following resources to find information for your project:
• Libraries, including virtual libraries
• Dictionaries and thesauri
• Newspapers, magazines and journals
• Television programs and streaming services (documentaries, news and current affairs programs and podcasts)
• Subject experts and professionals such as writers, poets etc.
• The internet
• As part of the research, learners must also learn about how to compile a bibliography/source list. Learners should consult at least 3 sources.

Remember the below format for your bibliography:

Author	Title	Year of publication	Publisher	Place of Publication

Electronic sources:

Writer of article	Title of article	Year of publication	Website address	Date when website was visited

SECTION A: POETRY – COMPULSORY

ESSAY QUESTION

- Answer ONE question in this section.
- Your response should take the form of a well-constructed essay of 200-250 words (about ONE page).

QUESTION 1

Hypotheses

Even though many poems can share similarities in the style and theme that they are written, they can also differ significantly in ways such as approach or perspective, reflecting the distinct historical, cultural, or literary contexts of their creation. A closer examination of these differences or similarities reveals new insight and deeper understanding into the theme or issue explored in these poems.

Research question

Choose any TWO of the prescribed poems that you have studied so far this year.
Discuss any 3 of the following poetic devices as applicable to the poems you have chosen. You will do a comparative analysis so as to see how similar or different the three aspects of the poems that you have chosen are. You may use any of the below as a guide for any of the three options you choose to analyse.

Structural Analysis

- Number of stanzas
- Number of lines per stanza
- Rhyme scheme (if applicable)
- Meter (if applicable)

Language and Imagery

- Imagery (sensory details)
- Metaphors
- Similes
- Personification
- Alliteration
- Assonance
- Onomatopoeia

Themes and Motifs

- Identify the central theme(s)
- Identify recurring motifs (repeated ideas or symbols)

Poetic devices

- Symbolism
- Irony
- Enjambment
- Onomatopoeia
- Hyperbole
- Other literary devices used

Remember to follow the writing process steps below:

Planning (completing mind map)
Drafting (writing rough draft)

Revising (checking rough draft for errors)
Editing (correcting errors in rough draft)
Proofreading (checking the edited rough draft for errors)

[10 MARKS]

AND

Answer ONE question from EITHER SECTION B (Novel) AND SECTION C (Drama).

EITHER

SECTION B: NOVEL

MOTHER TO MOTHER*– Sindiwe Magona OR THE MARK – Edyth Bulbring

QUESTION 2.1: MOTHER TO MOTHER– Sindiwe Magona

Hypotheses

The book Mother to Mother is a touching and elegant story of race relations in South Africa. We look at it from the eyes of a mother who loves her son but recognizes his inadequacies. It is a devastating look at apartheid, violence, and anger in a society long split between black and white.

Research question.

Is Mandisa correct in saying that Mxolisi is a product of his own environment, in other words that he is not responsible for his own actions?
Critically discuss your response in a well substantiated essay of 300-350 words (about 1½ to 2 pages).

[25 MARKS]

OR

QUESTION 2.2: THE MARK – Edyth Bulbring

Hypotheses

In The Mark, the author, Edyth Bulbring, depicts a dystopian society in which Ettie must fight for her survival. Contrasting to Ettie's world, are the mythical worlds depicted in the books she collects for Reader.

Research question.

Critically explore the contrast between Ettie's world and the mythical worlds.

Your response should take the form of a well-constructed essay of 300-350 words (about 1½ to 2 pages).

[25 MARKS]

OR

SECTION C: DRAMA

ROMEO AND JULIET* – William Shakespeare

OR

THE LIGHTHOUSE KEEPER'S WIFE* – Charles J Fourie

QUESTION 3.1: ROMEO AND JULIET – William Shakespeare

Hypotheses

In the play Romeo and Juliet by William Shakespeare, Romeo's passion can be seen not only as a romantic feeling, but a powerful force due to its intensity and the circumstances that surround it. Societal pressures and familial conflicts lead to a reckless and all-consuming ardour that ultimately drives the tragic events of the play.

Romeo's passion is so great that it is almost violent.

Research question.

Critically discuss the validity of the above statement with specific reference to the death of Mercutio (Act 3, Scene 1) and general reference to the play as a whole.

Your response should take the form of a well-constructed essay of 300-350 words (about 1½ to 2 pages).

[25 MARKS]

OR

QUESTION 3.2: THE LIGHTHOUSE KEEPER'S WIFE – Charles J Fourie

Hypotheses

It is clear from the play, The Lighthouse Keeper's Wife, that all human beings seek to be treated fairly and with human dignity. If not, this leads to conflict.

Research question.

Critically discuss the above statement.

Your discussion should take the form of a well-constructed essay of 300–350 words (about 1½ to 2 pages).
