NATIONAL SENIOR CERTIFICATE EXAMINATIONS

PRESCRIBED WORKS

November 2028–June 2029

SELECTION PROCESS FOR PRESCRIBED WORKS

1. Suggestions of suitable works for the next cycle are called for at the respective National User Group Conferences in February.

2. All teachers are invited to submit their suggestions to the relevant assessment specialist by the end of May.

3. These suggestions are then considered by the relevant examining panel together with the assessment specialist.

4. A final choice is made based on the specific criteria pertinent to each subject.

5. The Prescribed Works booklet is then submitted to the Committee for School Assessment in September of each year for ratification.

6. The approved Prescribed Works booklet is then sent to schools in hard copy form and published on the IEB website.

ISBN: 978–0–7981–1850–7

4. VIERDE GENRE

'n Skool doen EEN van die volgende genres. Die idee is dat minstens TWEE take gedoen word en dat dit anders is as Vraestel 2. Die vierde genre leen hom by uitstek tot die betrek en bytrek van transaksionele skryfwerk.

4.1 Kortverhale

'n Eie keuse van VYF kortverhale wat tematies saamhang. Minstens een van die skryftake moet hierdie samehang ondersoek. Die kortverhale kan die werk van een of van meer skrywers betrek, maar moet kandidate blootstel aan die reikwydte van ons letterkunde – eietydse werke ingesluit.

4.2 Poësie: Kies opsie 4.2.1 of 4.2.2 of 4.2.3

4.2.1 Epiese gedig/versdrama

Enige keuse van 'n epiese gedig/versdrama deur een van die ouer meesters, bv. Van Wyk Louw, D.J. Opperman, Adam Small, Uys Krige. Die keuse behoort 'n werk te wees wat nog nie vantevore deur die IEB voorgeskryf is nie.

4.2.2 Bundel: Ontleed en bespreek enige sewe gedigte van een spesifieke Afrikaanse digter. Die gedigte moet na 2 000 gepubliseer wees. Die doel hier is om die gekose digter se werk deegliker te bekyk en tipiese trekke van die digter se skryfwerk te identifiseer.

4.2.3 Lirieke as poësie (Kies a, b, c, of d)

(a) Gebruik die lirieke van 'n album deur 'n Afrikaanse liedjieskrywer/sanger en bestudeer die lirieke as 'n alternatiewe tipe digbundel. Hoe pas hierdie groep liedjies bymekaar? (Voorbeelde van albums wat in hierdie verband goed gewerk het, is Coenie de Villiers se Amper alleen en Hartland, en David Kramer se Hemel en aarde.)

(b) Kies 'n groep liedjies van 'n Afrikaanse liedjieskrywer/sanger van verskillende albums. Kyk hoe die liedjieskrywer/sanger 'n tema of temas ontwikkel het oor die verloop van sy/haar loopbaan heen. (Hier het die werk van Stef Bos goeie keuses opgelewer – al is sy aanvanklike werk in Nederlands, is sy later liedjies Afrikaans. Dit skep ook interessante besprekingspunte.)

(c) Kies 'n groep van minstens sewe Afrikaanse liedjies waarvan die lirieke as gedigte beskou kan word (nie getoonsette gedigte nie!) en wat tematies skakel. Hoe beskou verskillende liedjieskrywers dieselfde tema?

(d) Kies 'n groep getoonsette gedigte en ondersoek hoe die komponiste die betekenis van die gedigte met hul musiek ondersteun.

In al hierdie gevalle moet die lirieke nie slegs as gedigte bekyk word nie – daar moet ook aandag geskenk word aan die aard van die musiek wat gebruik word. (Byvoorbeeld: studente het gevoel dat David Kramer se musiek te ligsinnig is vir die ernstige temas wat in die lirieke aangeraak word.)

4.3 Drama

Lees 'n onlangs gepubliseerde drama (nie ouer as vyf jaar nie) en ondersoek die opvoeringsgerigtheid daarvan asook die uitdagings wat die drama aan die regisseur stel.

4.4 Die roman subgenre

Kies 'n roman uit 'n spesifieke subgenre (bv. liefdesromans, misdaadroman, geestelike romans, wetenskapfiksie, ens.). Ontleed dit om te bepaal of dit voldoen aan die kenmerke van die spesifieke subgenre en of dit geslaagd is binne die subgenre. Bepaal ook hoekom die subgenre so suksesvol en gewild onder lesers is. (Die roman mag nie tans/voorheen voorgeskryf wees nie en ook nie 'n vertaalde werk wees nie). Dit is ook verkieslik dat die keuse fokus op meer onlangse werke en skrywers.

4.5 Filmstudie

Die Afrikaanse filmbedryf beleef tans 'n bloeitydperk en nuwe films word gereeld uitgereik vir sowel die tiener- en volwasse mark. Kies enige TWEE van hierdie nuwer films. Bestudeer en vergelyk die twee rolprente m.b.t teikenmark, tema, inhoud en tegniek. Die films mag NIE op romans gebaseer wees nie. Maak asb. seker dat minstens een van die take filmtegniek betrek.

D. FOURTH GENRE – FILMS

Schools must study any two films, focusing on the following outcomes:

- Learners will be able to explain the role that cinematographic techniques (visual, audio, and audio-visual) such as the use of colour, subtitle, composition, dialogue, music, sound, lighting, editing, framing, styles of shot, camera techniques, camera movement, foregrounding, and backgrounding, play in meaning-making.
- Learners will be able to summarise the film's stance on a particular theme or topic, and explain how this is conveyed to the audience, as well as how the audience is positioned in relation to the theme.
- Learners will be able to compare and contrast their own perspectives on the theme or topic with those presented in the films.
- Learners will be able to analyse and evaluate both the messages and themes in the films, and the design and performance choices made in conveying those messages and themes.

The assessment task(s) must assess all of these outcomes, and the total length of the required response should be between 1000 and 1200 words.

NATIONAL SENIOR CERTIFICATE NOVEMBER 2028–JUNE 2029

Theme: Confinement and Escape

Throughout literature, confinement and escape serve as powerful motifs that illuminate the ways individuals navigate societal structures, personal limitations, and imagined freedoms. Some characters wrestle with physical imprisonment, while others grapple with ideological entrapment – confined not by walls, but by the invisible forces of tradition, expectation, or perception. The desire to escape is equally complex; some characters attempt to flee their conditions, others resign themselves to them, while some unknowingly reinforce the very structures they wish to dismantle. These tensions reveal that imprisonment is not always imposed by external forces – it can stem from the stories a society tells, the hierarchies it preserves, and the sacrifices it demands.

Rather than seeking a clear resolution in these narratives, students are encouraged to trace patterns, contradictions, and ambiguities. Who is truly confined, and who possesses the freedom to leave? Is escape an act of defiance, or does it merely reinforce a cyclical structure of exclusion and reinvention? These questions invite a deeper, more critical engagement – one that shifts the focus from individual blame to systemic inquiry, opening space for nuanced readings of power, identity, and agency. Literature does not hand us answers; it presents tensions that compel us to rethink the narratives we inherit and the assumptions we make about confinement and freedom.

PRESCRIBED WORKS

NATIONAL SENIOR CERTIFICATE NOVEMBER 2028–JUNE 2029

Prose: 180 lines

Cicero:

Theft from Segesta In Verrem II.iv.72, 74–80 (103 lines)
Suggested Text: Introducing Cicero (Scottish Classics Group)

Nepos: Life of Hannibal

Character of Hannibal Ch 1 (10 lines)
End of his campaign Ch 2 (20 lines)
Early command Ch 3 (14 lines)
Zama Ch 6 (12 lines)

https://dcc.dickinson.edu/nepos-hannibal
Texts provided on request.

Livy
Hannibal's death (book XXXIX ch 51) (26 lines)
https://latinitium.com/latin-book-club-livy-the-death-of-hannibal

Texts provided on request.

Theme: What makes someone a hero? Heroes and anti-heroes in history.
Candidates should:

- consider how heroes and villains are defined within social constructs; how national bias makes a person either "heroic" or "villainous".
- analyse the views and leanings of Nepos and Livy in their depiction of Hannibal's character.
- does the Romans' behaviour before the battle of Zama qualify as "heroic" or not?
- analyse Cicero's views in his portrayal of Verres.
- understand and discuss Cicero's attitudes to Verres and other corrupt governors, and his perception of what Rome should stand for.
- be able to recall the main events in the prescribed sections. They should have read the earlier and later parts of the In Verrem II in translation, and to understand the reasons for the Romans' disapproval of the actions of corrupt governors.
- understand the reasons for Hannibal's long-drawn-out enmity towards Rome, including his childhood and the early influences on him.
- explore the themes of warfare and supremacy in war, as well as the safety of Rome's dominion in times of peace.
- consider the differences between the historical writings of Nepos and Livy in their portrayals of Hannibal

Background on Hannibal:

https://dcc.dickinson.edu/apollonius-argonautica/parallel-texts/catullus-64-ariadnes-soliloquy

Texts provided on request.

Theme: Heroes, anti-heroes, friends, and frenemies, in myth, in history, and in society.
Candidates should:

- appreciate the style, tone, and purpose of each of the four poets.
- be able to comment on how the various characters are portrayed, and the differences between what was accepted in ancient historiography and satire compared with modern views (ideas on the purpose and method of history-writing, and ancient and modern satire); eg would the publication of Martial's poems have been allowed in modern times, or would they have been deemed to be libellous?
- be able to comment on the portrayal of Aeneas as an archetype of Roman pietas and heroism.
- recall and understand the story told by Vergil in Books 1-4 of the Aeneid, and the role of Aeneas in the founding of Rome.
- be able to discuss and compare the portrayals of the characters of Aeneas, Theseus, Ariadne, Daedalus, and Icarus.
